For most companies, cost is the central issue. Kendlebell can provide a simple and cost effective solutions, providing customers with their own team of dedicated personal assistants.

All your calls are answered by your own PA, giving you peace of mind that you'll never miss another new enquiry again. Kendlebell is a personal service; your clients hear a friendly human voice on the line, and not an answer machine.

The system at our office in Crewe immediately identifies who the call is for and allows the PA to give out helpful information or answer general enquiries on your behalf as if they were actually members of your staff.

All this costs a fraction of the price of employing staff, involves no administration and gives an excellent first impression to your callers. Messages are passed to you instantly by either SMS, email or fax and you can phone in and speak to your PA anytime. At the end of each working day we can also send you an email or fax logging all your messages taken that day.
